

BATHURST VISITOR INFORMATION CENTRE HOME HIRE/HOME HOST PROGRAM

ARMOR ALL BATHURST 12 HOUR EVENT
24 - 26 February 2012

Bathurst Visitor Information Centre coordinates a home hire and home hosting program for periods when commercial accommodation is unavailable. Local home owners agree to either rent their entire home or take in guests on a bed & breakfast basis for a minimum of 3 nights.

Home hire accommodation includes:

- Full use of a private home and all its facilities for the length of your stay
- Bed linen, towels and household needs
- Continental breakfast provisions for each day

Home host accommodation includes:

- Use of a bedroom in a private home
- Full cooked breakfast each day
- Bed linen and bath towels

Each home is inspected by the staff of the Bathurst Visitor Information Centre. All tenants need to contact the Bathurst Visitor Information Centre and register their interest by 24 December 2011.

How the program works:

- Applications will be forwarded to all interested parties in December 2011.
- Completed forms should be returned to the Bathurst Visitor Information Centre either by fax, email or mail as soon as received, bookings close on Friday 20 January, 2012.
- All applications must be accompanied by a booking fee in the form of a cheque, money order or credit card, or they will not be processed.
- This fee is non refundable but will not be processed until a suitable property is allocated to the booking.
- All necessary paperwork will be sent to the applicant. This must be read carefully and signed in the appropriate places, then returned to the Visitor Information Centre with full payment to secure the booking. Full payment will be required by Friday 27 January, 2012.
- Once the home owner has agreed to the booking, final confirmation is sent to the applicant.
