

12 HOURS ON THE MOUNTAIN

24-26 FEBRUARY 2012 • MOUNT PANORAMA

CORPORATE HOSPITALITY OPTIONS

The 2012 Armor All Bathurst 12 Hour will be held over the period 24 to 26 February 2012. In 2011, 17 exotic GT vehicles joined production cars for the first time providing a memorable spectacle, with Germany's Team Joest victorious in their Audi R8 LMS. In 2012, the same formula will apply along with some additional classes of vehicles eligible to compete. With international interest high, expect to see a significant amount of foreign raiders descend on Mount Panorama in an attempt to take the outright trophy offshore again. In addition to GT cars competing for outright victory, there will be a fierce battle for class honours among the local production car ranks. Brands likely to be competing for outright honours include Aston Martin, Audi, Ferrari, Lamborghini, Mercedes Benz and Porsche. Class bragging rights will be fought between a host of marques including BMW, Ford, Holden, Mitsubishi and Subaru.

The Armor All Bathurst 12 Hour is rapidly developing into an international Event and kicks off the Australian motorsport year. Supporting the main race will be four categories promising nonstop action during the three day motorfest.

Your company is invited to be a part of this exciting Event with options to entertain clients in an exclusive manner within your private suite or entertain smaller groups in a syndicated club. All hospitality packages are located in the pit complex with views of pit lane and pit straight. Access to the pit complex rooftop enables panoramic views of the circuit and Bathurst region. To see a host of high performance vehicles battle it out for 12 gruelling hours, in the comfort of an air conditioned corporate suite, be at the Mountain in February 2012.
